

Brittany Byrnes is an Australian dance judge, coach, and choreographer. She is proud to have coached Australian dancers to some of the country's first ICU and Dance Worlds medals.

Brittany has had the great honour of joining the hip hop panel at The Dance Worlds. Now one of Australia's busiest judges, she is very passionate about assisting the growth of the sport in Australia. Coming from a successful performance background, Brittany currently works with over 50 dance programs around Australia, providing All Star choreography, coaching and support. As Head Judge for Dance and Cheer events, Brittany is proud to aid in the education of coaches and judges, while staying committed to her own growth and ongoing education in the ever-evolving sport of All Star Dance.

Brittany is founder of Dek Dek Dance Therapy for children living with HIV/AIDS in rural Thailand, and looks forward to continuing her work there later this year.
